Assistant Chapter B Director

The day finally arrived. Forrest Gump dies and goes to Heaven.

He is at the Pearly Gates, met by St. Peter himself. However, the gates are closed, and Forrest approaches the gatekeeper.

St. Peter said, "Well, Forrest, it is certainly good to see you. We have heard a lot about you. I must tell you, though, that the place is filling up fast, and we have been administering an entrance examination for everyone. The test is short, but you have to pass it before you can get into Heaven."

Forrest responds, "It sure is good to be here, St. Peter, sir. But nobody ever told me about any entrance exam. I sure hope the test ain't too hard. Life was a big enough test as it was."

St. Peter continued, "Yes, I know, Forrest, but the test is only three questions.

1. What two days of the week begin with the letter T?

2. How many seconds are there in a year?

What is God's first name?"

Forrest leaves to think the questions over. He returns the next day and sees St. Peter, who waves him up, and says, "Now that you have had a chance to think the questions over, tell me your answers."

Forrest replied, "Well, the first one -- which two days in the week begins with the letter 'T'?"

Shucks, that one is easy. That would be Today and Tomorrow."

The Saint's eyes opened wide and he exclaimed, "Forrest, that is not what I was thinking, but you do have a point, and I guess I did not specify, so I will give you credit for that answer.

How about the next one?" asked St. Peter. "How many seconds in a year?"

"Now that one is harder," replied Forrest, "but I think and think about that, and I guess the only answer can be twelve."

Astounded, St. Peter said, "Twelve? Twelve? Forrest, how in Heaven's name could you come up with twelve seconds in a year?"

Forrest replied, "Shucks, there's got to be twelve: January 2nd, February 2nd, March 2nd..."

'Hold it," interrupts St. Peter. "I see where you are going with this, and I see your point, though that was not quite what I had in mind...but I will have to give you credit for that one, too. Let us go on with the third and final question.

Can you tell me God's first name"?

"Sure," Forrest replied, "it's Andy."

"Andy?" exclaimed an exasperated and frustrated St Peter.

"Ok, I can understand how you came up with your answers to my first two questions, but just how in the world did you come up with the name Andy as the first name of God?"

"Shucks, that was the easiest one of all," Forrest replied. "I learnt it from the song..."

- Andy walks with me,

- Andy talks with me,

Andy tells me I am his own"

St. Peter opened the Pearly Gates, and said: "Run, Forrest, run."

From Your Senior Chapter B Director Tom Peck

Hi Everyone,

April showers have brought out the May flowers for sure. Big weekend at the cabin in Pigeon Forge for our annual gathering in the Smokies. The weather was good, even the last day when the storm came in, it did not slow our group down. Good food, and lots of fellowship in a really beautiful cabin. Thanks Pat for pulling things together making all the arrangements and organizing a wonderful time.

I think the riding season has officially arrived, hope you all have your bike or Trike serviced and ready to go. Never know when the opportunity for a impromptu ride might present itself some beautiful afternoon, make sure you're ready to rock and roll.

I'm looking for a new addition to our newsletter, something someone might need to want to take on and write about each month. The article could be any topic word find, joke of the month, special interest or other information everyone would enjoy. If you have an idea please mention it to us.

Tom

Happy Trails

As we head out of (hopefully) this up and down weather and turn our thoughts to a good riding season, let's take a little mental refresher course. The wet and unusually cold spring has limited riding time for most of us to just a few good days here and there. Yeah, most of you have given your bike a good check-up and done the usual maintenance things, but are YOU ready for the riding season?

Aside from ensuring that you're OK medically, it's also time to remember about common courtesy to your fellow riders while on group rides with the chapter. Everyone on the ride needs to be considerate of the group and the ride leader who has set up a time schedule for the trip. Arrive early at the starting location. Have your bike fueled up and ready to go. If you need to, use the bathroom BEFORE the riders' meeting! Have a question, now's the time. No phone calls during the ride ( I put my phone in the trunk). And, above all, don't make the CB radio into a gossip line in urban situations when it will be needed for giving navigational information to the entire group.

These are all common courtesy points that are sometimes forgotten during the off season, and keeping these in mind makes the ride more enjoyable for everybody.

See you soon and remember to ride safe

Fork Bearings and Seals

How to tell when the front seals and bearings on the front forks need replacing. After a ride you notice a film of oil on the front forks and around the cowl and in extreme cases you will have fork oil on the floor. Honda sells the complete set of bearings and seals for this repair. I found it to be a big job.

First you must remove the front wheel and calipers, front and rear fender sections. The cover above the cowl to gain access to the lower bolts of the forks. Then you remove the dash to loosen the pinch bolts on the top part of the steering head this will enable you to remove the forks from the trike/bike. From here on you will need special tools to install the bearing and seals and fork oil. This is a job best left to the experienced motorcycle mechanic.

....Smokies Stadium for Pediatric Brain Tumor foundation..

To order tickets on line go to smokiesbaseball.com

Then click on schedule and advance to July 14th and hit the small green "T" for tickets

Next you will have the ticket page and make sure it is July 14th and on the Special Offer Code in middle of page put "pbtfl8" no quotes.

After you have selected this it should say Pediatric Brain Tumor foundation, under Best Available it will give to a drop box of what section of seats you would like, i.e. 108, 113 etc. Chapter Bee is going to be in 114, so get them in now as to have room to fit everyone before they fill that section up. A group could pick a section and sit together. Then pick how many tickets you want, then hit continue page to the reserve page, the tickets are $10.00 plus $1.50 for handling. After that hit "Reserve Tickets" it goes to the "Complete Pending Transaction" and it goes to the page on how much you owe, in the middle of the page is a "T" in a blue circle, that is how you want to get your tickets, (Print at home, mobile download to your smart phone or at the will call gate the night of the game) then hit blue box to continue to set up a profile, to get special event emails and make it easier to order on line next time, then hit proceed when you have completed your profile and hit proceed to credit card page and fill your info, looks like a lot of encrypted stuff to make your transaction safe, hit pay now. Then you can print you tickets or download them to the phone or just do will call that night. .Whew !!!! Looks like a lot, but I did it first time, so you all will breeze by it.
